

Curriculum Vitae

Sven Simon

1978	Born on October 9 th in Lahn-Wetzlar (Germany)
1999 – 2005	Studies of Law, Justus Liebig University Giessen
2002 – 2003	Study visit at the University of Warwick (England)
2003	Certificate in English Law
2005	First State Exam
2008 – 2010	Legal traineeship <ul style="list-style-type: none">– Court of Appeals Giessen– Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology (Berlin)– Law Firm Weber-Yacobovitch-Feder in Tel Aviv (Israel)– Law Firm Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer (Frankfurt am Main)– Assistant Attaché in the Permanent Mission of Germany to the United Nations in New York (USA)
2009	Doctor Juris (Ph.D. or S.J.D. equivalent), Dissertation: “Liberalization of Public Services in WTO and EU Law”
2010	Second State Exam (bar qualification)
2010 – 2015	Assistant Professor of Public Law, International and European Law, Justus Liebig University Giessen, Germany
2011, 2014	Visiting Professor at the Law School of the University of Wisconsin, Madison (USA)
2015	Dr. habil. (Post-doctoral degree [Habilitation]), “Limits of the Federal Constitutional Court in the European Integration Process”, venia legendi (permission for lecturing) in Public Law, European Law, Public International Law, and International Economic Law
2015 – 2016	Professor of Public Law at the Freie Universität Berlin
Since 2016	Full Professor of Law at the Philipps University Marburg, Chair for International Law, Public Law and European Law
Since 2019	Member of the European Parliament
Since 2024	Chairman of the Committee on Constitutional Affairs